

The “Denis Jones Memorial Overseas Bursary”

To Attend

‘Canadian Western Agribition’
21st - 26th November 2016

To compete in the Canadian National 4-H and Youth Judging Competition

Competitors must be 18-21 years of age on the 25th November, 2016

Jim Barber, who will be accompanying the team, has informed us that the approximate cost of attending will be £1,400.00 per person which includes air fares, hotel and entry fees.

Some meals are included in the trip and all entry fees to the Show. The competitor will need to buy other meals, etc.

Taking the estimated cost of £1,400.00 as stated above, the Society will fund 75% leaving the successful candidate to find the remaining £350.00, plus spending money and insurance.

To apply for the Overseas Bursary each candidate must:-

- Be nominated by a Member of the Society who will be required to present in writing their reasons why they believe the candidate would be a suitable nominee.
- Submit in writing-
 - (i) A CV of their involvement with the Breed.
 - (ii) A written report (up to 500 words maximum) providing reasons why they wish to be selected to participate in the Judging Competition.
- Be prepared to provide a full written report on their experience, accompanied by appropriate photographs for publication in the Society's Annual Journal.
(They will also be expected, if invited by an Area Association, to make a presentation on their trip).
- Submit their application to the Hereford Cattle Society's Office by FRIDAY, 1st JULY, 2016.

Following the receipt of all applications, the Chairman and President of the Society will act as adjudicators to select the successful applicant.
